

Letter from Bishop David Middleton

Dear Members and Guests,

By the time you read this letter, you will already be aware that change is imminent. For a number of years, we have been cared for by Apostle Uli Falk, and now you know that very soon we shall receive a new Apostle. The District Evangelist David Heynes will be ordained during a divine service, to be conducted by our dear Chief Apostle, on Sunday April 1st, at the East Midlands Conference Centre, Nottingham. The service will commence at 10:00h

Our Apostle Falk has worked tirelessly for the benefit of the congregations here in the UK, Isle of Man and Ireland. He took us all into his heart and made numerous visits to the UK. While it may be perceived he was seemingly watching over us from a distance, he was in fact, very close to us and aware of the many situations that challenged our members. He has loved and prayed for each of us. We say thank you to our Apostle who accompanied us on many journeys.

And now, we have our very own Apostle, living here in the UK. I am excited to think that every congregation will be able to prepare for and experience their own Apostle visit. This is unique for all of us. Our expectations are great and our experiences will be greater.

I am full of joy and anticipation about the weeks, months and years ahead. Already for some while we planned visits to a variety of congregations where there is a need for Holy Sealing and ordinations.

Let me share an extract out of Acts 2.

A Vital Church Grows

Then those who gladly received his word were baptised; And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles, so continuing daily....praising God and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily those who were being saved.

See you in Church!

With love from our Apostle Uli Falk and our future Apostle David Heynes,

David Middleton
